SUMMER PASTIMES.

BY TOM.

You did not think I would forget,
I promised to remember;
But that was in July you know—
And now—it is September.
Don't break your heart, my pretty dear,
'Tis really out of reason,
That I should love the self same girl,
For more than half a season.

Alas! for all those silly vows,
We whispered close together,
They've vanished, quite as fast I ween
As friends in adverse weather.
When in the sunny summer time
We strayed amidst the clover,
Perhaps I pressed your hand too close,
But now, the dream is over.

'Twas your demure and tender look,
That tempted me to lying,
To your work you, as I to mine,
There is no cause for sighing.
I thought to pass some pleasant hours,
I never thought of sinning.
And if I kissed you, now and then,
Why did you look so winning?

Why really now! Upon my word!
I'm sure, I do regret it,
The only comfort that I have
Is that you'll soon forget it.
My gentle maid, take this to heart,
Love is not love, but passion,
True-heartedness is out of date,
And Friendship's out of fashion.

BELLEFONTE, PA.,

Wednesday Morning, October 19, 1870.

DEFEATED BUT NOT DISMAYED.

We confess that we are disappointed. The election has gone against us in this County, in the Congressional, and Senatorial Districts. We had hope of carrying our ticket in the county. There was dissatisfaction in the Democratic ranks. One week before the election, the political signs were all indicative of success. We did not believe that Meek would be successful and we felt confident of D. B. Malone's election to the office of County Commissioner.

Our Senatorial candidates made a strong fight and the election in the borough of Bellefonte, the home of Wm. P. Wilson, where he is best known, where he is esteemed and respected by all, shows how strong he is, that he was the very best and strongest candidate that Centre County could have offered. Mr. Woods as will be seen by the official returns, received the full party vote, we mean of course that portion of the party that went to the polls and voted. But Wilson and Woods are defeated, and with them our friend R. H. Duncan, as good and pure a man as ever graced a ticket, or breathed our pure mountain air. Wilson and Woods and Duncan are defeated, but not sacrificed. They have only suffered temporary defeat, by reason of the inactivity and apathy of luke-warm Republicans who wished them no harm; but who believed there was enough Republicans in the county and district to elect them. without their aid, and consequently they remained at home. SIX HUNDRED AND SIXTY Republicans remained away from the polls in the county. This is what defeated us.

Hon. Wm. H. Armstrong is defeated. Defeated by 27 votes. How humiliating. We regret that Mr. Armstrong is defeated; but it was not the work of the Democratic party. They cannot boast over the election of Sherwood. The Republican party has done the work, sacrificed principle, suffered defeat and partial disgrace to fall upon the party, some to gratify personal, and revengful feelings; others because they thought Mr. Armstrong's election was a foregone conclusion, and remained away from the polls.

We are sorry it is so; but it is, emphatically, the work of the Republican party. We were over sanguine. Perhaps did not work as we should have worked. We have no bitter things to write against any one. It is no time for crimination or re-crimination; but on the contrary, it is the hour for reflection. Let us, Republicans of Centre of Pennsylvania, profit by this lesson, and close up our ranks for the next great contest.

Centre County must and shall be redeemed. It can be done, it must be done. All we want is harmony in our organization, netvel, energetic committees in the townships, and an end of all cliques and factions, and the work is done. United effort must and will prevail. For your encouragement friends, we give you the following figures, which show that a full party vote this fall in this County would have given us the victory. In 1868 the Democrats polled in this County for Boyle their candidate for Auditor General 3765 votes. We polled for our candidate Gen. Hartranft 3388 votes.

In 1869 the Democrats polled for Packer, their candidate for Governor 3464 votes. We polled for Gov. Geary 3102 votes.

Now look at the vote in 1870. Take the vote on Jury Commissioner, Burchfield 3421 Henry McEwen 2728. Mr. McEwen receives but 75 votes more than Mr. Armstrong while Mr. Woods received but 39 votes more than Mr. Armstrong. And the suming up shows that 660 Republicans in Centre county did not vote, whether from carelessness or dissatisfaction, we do not pretend to know. But, we submit, if the facts do not bear us out in the statement that our defeat, humiliation, mortification and disgrace is not the work of our own party.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

The latest reports from Europe are indicitive of a long and bloody struggle between the French and Prussian Nationalities. Bazine is reported, after several heavy battles, to have cut his way out of Metz, and was marching to the relief of Verdun, a French city surrounded by a portion of the Prussian army. A force of Prussians at Orleans is reported to have surrendered to the French. Garibaldi is in France at the head of a French division of volunteers. The French at Paris have made several successful sorties, and the cabel reports the Prussians about abandoning the siege. Gen. Burnside is in Paris assisting in the endeavor to bring about peace between the two beligerents. Balloons have been used in conveying news out of and into Paris since its investment. Russia is making preparations for war on a gigantic scale, whether against Turky or Prussia is not known. Great excitement exists in Holland, the King wants to declare war against Prussia, but his cabinet and the people oppose him.

OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

On the 11th inst., elections were held in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and Nebraska.

The result in Pennsylvania is a Democratic gain of five members of Congress; a Democratic gain of one State Senator. The vote in the State Senate will stand, Republicans 17, Democrats 16. Fifty-five Republicans have been elected to the lower House and forty-five Democrats, leaving a Republican majority on joint ballot of eleven.

The Republicans carried Ohio and the Congressional delegation from that State remains the same as last year.

The Democrats carried Indiana, but we have not heard how the new Congressional delegation from that State stands. The Legislature of the State is Democratic which insures the election of a Democrat to the U. S. Senate.

Iowa cast her usual Republican majority electing all their candidates, and Nebraska increased her Republican majority making a clean sweep.

For the first time in the history of the country one of the States of the Union, New Hampshire, will show a falling off in population by the census returns.

To stop an itching head use Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer, a sure cuer.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT OF GEN R. E. LEE'S DEATH.

"General Robert E. Lee died this morning at half-past nine o'clock. He began to grow worse on Monday and continued to sink until he breathed his last this morning. He died as he lived, calmly and quietly in the Lord Jesus Christ. The places of business are all closed. The bells are tolling and the whole community is thrown into the deepest grief."

The above is the telegram which announces the death of the very worst man, in our opinion, ever born in America. The prostitution of the telegraph to extolling this man is both impudunt and indecent. The opeartor at Richmond is incompetent to speak of his spiritual condition, or we are very much mistaken. His libel on the loyal men of Richmond is broad and shameful. And his statement that Gen. Lee lived as he died—and the inference so clearly ment—that his life as well as his death was an illustration of the Christian virtues, cannot be permitted to pass unchallenged. But in entering our protest against this glorification of a man whose high social position, masterly ability, and military genius were all bent to the destruction of his country, we shall restrain the bitterness of invective which springs to our lips for utterance.

Robert E. Lee was educated by the Government of the United States at the National Military School at West Point. On finishing his studies he took a solemn oath to support and defend his country against all assaults. On him was laid every force which can bind the consciences of men. He owed fealty and allegiance to his native land by the accident of birth. He wasbound to her by every sentiment of gratitude for her liberality and care in his education. He had voluntarily superadded to these obligations the oath of a soldier; and so fastened the bond, so far as human honor, personal benefit and nativity, could engage the loyalty of man.

He rose rapidly in his profession. Honors were heaped upon him with a generous hand. He was trusted by the military power with absolute faith. And in the early maturity of manhood we find him the pet of society, the pride of the army, and the confidential staff officer of the commander-in-chief. Placed above the ordinary temptations of his fellow officers even, by a large inheritence, he was protected from all care for his personal fortunes, and shielded from the preying anxiety of many, in his profession, concerning the future. His high reputation as a soldier rendered his position secure in the army. The exalted social position he occupied gave him a clear prospect of his duty. And the singular serenity of his intellect, linked to a cool and clear judgement, protected him from the errors to which the more ardent and enthusiastic of his propession were liable. For such a man to mistake his duty there can be only one explanation. When men like Lee prove false to their duty only one solution can be found. Natural depravity, craft and baseness of heart only account for the wrong-doing of such a man—and Lee did wrong.

When the most inexcusable war ever made, was inaugurated by traitors to destroy the government under which Lee was born, which had nurtured him, which he was bound by every honorable motive and sentiment to defend, and from which he derived all his honors, he was the Adjutant General on the staff. Unlike the hot-blooded officers, who plunged into the vortex of treason, Lee cooly weighed the chances of success, while he remained the confidant of General Scott. His sluggish blood and his crafty brain weighed all the chances well, and being deceived by the first reverses to the Union cause, he slunk away into treason and became the Generalissimo of its armies.

How deeply this viper stung the bosom which warmed it, let one hundred thousand graves of loyal soldiers attest! But it was not the fact that he led the rebel armies which brings him into inextinguishable approbrium. For the last year of the war he was virtually, and absolutely, The Rebellion. Davis and other leaders had fallen into disgrace. Misfortune had well nigh brought the South to despair. And in their extremity they invested Gen. Lee with powers simply absolute. His clear judgment could not fail to see eventual ruin. Yet his cold unimpressible nature urged him to fight on. And every man killed, on both sides, after the battles of Gettysburg and Vicksburg, are murders clearly and justly chargeable to the dead traitor.

Even after the war closed the malignity of Lee was unabated. The honor in which he was held by the unrepentant rebels of the South gave him opportunities, far surpassing those of any other Southern man, to heal the wounds of the war. Whatever Lee could afford to do any one south of the Potomac could afford to copy. One sentence from him, acknowledging the hopelessness of further effort to ward off the certain consequences of defeat, and urging an acceptance of the inevitable, would have done more to restore the Union, and pacify the South, than the efforts of any ten thousand of his defeated comrades. Such a word was left unspoken; and the tongue which might have pronounced them is cold in death.

Was Robert E. Lee's life one of honor? Does such a life illustrate christianity? Has he earned the plaudits of either this generation or posterity? It is shocking to present such a character for encomium. It is monstrous to make any use of such a history, except as a warning for all to avoid its terrible wreck.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

It appears to be conceded now that rich planters will hold back their cotton for six months, if need be, in the hope of better prices. This may lighten the decline at Liverpool, consequent upon an unwieldy stock, but should the decline be serious the rebound will be all the greater, and in the event of peace, prices will advance fifty to seventy-five per cent, from the lowest point. There are those who predict peace through the restoration of Napoleon to the throne within sixty days. Europe is to combine to put him back, and republicanism will once more be throttled in its birth.—Ex.

A dose of Iowa whiskey killed a water snake a foot long, which had slipped down the throat of a farmer while he was drinking from the river.—Bellefonte Republican.

If a dose of Iowa whiskey would kill one snake, an old Bellefonter wants to know how many snakes a dose of Bellefonte whiskey from strychnine corner would kill.—Payette County (Iowa) Union.

That would be owing to the kind of snakes taking it. We know several of the copperhead kind who keep trying it and it appears to have a beneficial effect on them than otherwise.

Our bonds which are held on the Continent are in the hands of parties who have little or no use for the gold at present.

Mr. Beecher created a sensation by his sermon Sunday last. His church was filled to more than the usual suffocation, it having been rumored that he would take a new departure in eccentric theology. The audience were not disappointed. Taking Matthew xxiii., 30th verse, as his text, he proceeded to pull the plug out of the bottom of the lake of fire and brimstone. The Bible, he said, was full of fiction; as examples he mentioned the future life and the New Jerusalem.—Every man, he declared, was his own heaven maker. His remarks were humorous in the extreme, and the congregation were kept upon a broad grin until they drew the corners of their mouth for the benediction.

DR. SAGE'S CATARRH REMEDY is no Patent Medicine humbug gotten up to dupe the ingnorant and credulous, nor is it represented as being "composed of rare and precious substances, brought from the four corners of the earth, carried seven times across the Great Desert of Saharah, on the backs of fourteen camels, and brought across the Atlantic Ocean on two ships." It is a mild, soothing, pleasant Remedy, a perfect Specific for Chronic Nasal Catarrh, "Cold in the head," and kindred diseases. The proprietor, R. V. Pierce, M. D., of Buffalo, N. Y., (whose private Government Stamp is on every package of the Genuine,) offers a reward of $500 for a case of Catarrh he cannot cure. For sale by druggists. Sent by mail, postpaid for sixty cents. Address the proprietor as above.

ANTIDOTES TO POISONS.—Drink instantly a half glass of cool water, with a heaping teaspoonful of common salt and of ground mustard mixed in it, if any poison is swallowed. This will induce vomiting. Then swallow the white of one or two eggs or drink a cup of hot coffee, for fear some of the poison may remain. These two are antidotes for a greater number of poisons than any other dozens of articles known.

A new method of persecuting Chinamen has been introduced in the Oregon Legislature. It is called an act "to discourage estate." By this act it is to be made a felony for any male inhabitant of the State to wear his queue or shave a portion of his scalp without first obtaining a license therefor at the rate of ten dollars a month. It is believed the bill will pass.

GOOD PAY FOR DOING GOOD.—A wide-awake boy or girl, or older person, is wanted in every town, to canvass for one of the handsomest, cheapest and best youth's papers ever published—needed everywhere. Write for particulars to Z. Pope Vose, Publisher, Rockland, Maine.

DUTY.—It is a duty we owe to ourselves, as well as to those who are dependent upon us, to preserve our health and strength. Speer's "Standard Wine Bitters" are found to be an unfailing and valuable assistant in maintaining the vigor of the system, and in keeping it in tone.

Sold by Druggists and Grocers.

SOME church members think so much of themselves as to be blind to the wants of the poor. They may find out that their piety is not genuine, when it will be to late to reform.

PERSONS often profess to be christians in order to drive good bargains and move in the best society, but never allow their professions to interfere with their conscience.

PRACTICAL piety qualifies men for the enjoyment of Heaven. Empty professions whitewashes the wicked so as to make them appear well in the eyes of fools.

CARLYLE says:—"Make yourself a good man, and then you may be sure there is one less rascal in the world."

THE fear of the Devil is often mistaken for the love of the Lord.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Undecided.—"Who struck Billy Patterson," on the 11th inst.

If you want the "Chimny Corner," or any other periodical weekly or monthly, go to J. D. Miller's, at the Post office.

CHANGED.—The Watchman has changed to an illustrated periddical. An engraver is much needed in that establishment.

BIVALVES.—Lovers of oysters and their necessary fixens, should go to Runion's, at the "Big spring" and try some of his corn fed fellows.

ADJOURNED COURT.—The special court which was to have been held at this place on last week was adjourned until the 4th day of November.

BARGAINS.—Foster & Devling, profess to give greater bargains, more value for the money expended than any other house in town. Give them a trial.

GROCERIES.—Foster & Devling have a large assortment of boots & shoes, also, groceries of the very best. All of which they offier at reduced prices. Call and see.

ON the first page of this paper will be found a list of the premiums awarded exhibitors at the late Fair, on the inside we continue the publication of the list of articles exhibited.

SCATTERING VOTES.—At the recent election in the County, R. D. Petrikin, received 23 votes; Dan. Malone 2 votes; P. Geary Meek 2 votes; W. H. Sherwood 1 vote and "Valentines Jack" one vote.

BEAUTIFUL.—Graham & Son, of this place has some beautiful "croquet" slippers on exhibition in his window. They are the same pattern of shoes worn by the ladies in our Revolutionary days.

THOSE Philipsburgers, who had their teeth extracted by the agent of the "steam dental association," are anxiously looking for his return. They had their "eye teeth' most effectually cut by the operation.

A FULL pension for a discharged private soldier is $8 a month; if he has lost a limb, $15; if he has lost a leg and an arm, or both legs, $20 a month; if he is totally disabled and stands in need of attendance, $25 a month.

ENTERPRISE.—It is a generally conceded fact that Foster & Devling have just received from Philadelphia, one of the largest and best assortments of general merchantdise ever brought to this town. A visit to their store will convince any one.

PREMIUMS.—The premiums awarded by the Agricultural Society for articles exhibited at the late County Fair will be paid on and after the 15th of Oct. Those not called for by the 1st of November will be considered donated to the society.

BROOMS.—The REPUBLICAN office is under obligations to Mr. Buffington, for one of his Brooms that took the Premium at our late County Fair. After using it, it proves the committee to have been composed of men of good judgement as no better corn brooms are made.

A PAPER comes from away down in Arkansas, and in looking over its market prices we find—beef, 5 and 6 cents per pound; butter 12½ cents; eggs, 10 cents per dozen; flour, $4 per barrel; chickens, 10 to 15 cents each. Think of that ye munchers of 30 cent beef and 50 cents a pair chickens.

MEN AND BUSINESS.—Men in their business relations should not be honest because the law requires it, or because "honesty is the best policy," but because honesty is Right. Those who are only honest because the law makes them so, or honest from selfishness, are not to be trusted, because they have not the git of genuine honesty in the mind. For better than riches is the consciousness of doing right.

ELECTION DAY.—The election on the 11th inst., passed off in the usual manner. A pretty full vote was polled in the borough. The novel apperance at the polls of our colored population created merriment for some, while to the Democrats it produced anger, and their expletives were neither moral or complimentary to the newly enfranchised citizens. In exercising their newly given rights the colored voters behaved with as much decoram as many of their white fellow citizen.

BEAUTIFUL AND GOOD.—J. Walters & Son, carriage manufacures of Milroy, Pa., had on exhibition at our late County Fair some carriages and one sleigh, which surpassed anything in that line ever exhibited at any of our previous annual fairs. In fact, it was generally remarked by those who examined them, they were the very best they had seen for years. Of course they received the premium, as such enterprising men always will whenever they chose to exhibit their work to the public.

GOOD STOCK.—Curtin tp., raises some of the best stock in the county. J. P. DeHass has a blooded bull that is considered a beauty, and A. Tipton has one that kicks the beam at eleven hundred pounds. Mr. Tipton has a litter of pigs, a mixture of the Berkshire and Chester White, which average 480 pounds. N. L. Atwood, Esq., has a full blooded Chester White which is hard to beat and is a beauty in the pork line. Some of the finest horses in the county are raised in Curtin township, and S. A. Tipton can furnish just as good lumber for building and other purposes and on as reasonable terms as it can be purchased in the county. In all other things that goes to make a township prosperous, Curtin is abundantly favored.

THE following are the election returns of this borough, Oct. 11, 1870:

The South Ward elected for School Directors, James H. Lipton, Wm. Kerlin and Levi A. Miller, the two former Democrats and the latter a Republican.

The North Ward elected for School Directors O. A. Furst and John Hoffer, one Republican and one Democrat.

In the West Ward, Edward A. Nolan, (Democrat,) George Bayard and Lafayette Mulholland, (Republicans,) were elected to the Council.

DIED.—Frank S. Wilson, of this place, died at Lewisburg, on the 14th inst., of Lung disease, aged about 37 years. Mr. Wilson was a brother of Wm. P. and P. Benner Wilson, and was respected by all who knew him. His remains were brought to this place on last Saturday and on Sunday followed to the tomb by the largest number of people ever present on an occasion of the kind in this place. Mr. Wilson had been sick but a short time previous to his death, and some few weeks ago went to seek the advice of a Physician in Philadelphia, and getting no relief there, went to Lewisburg where he died. His family and friends have the condolence of the entire community, in their sad bereavement.

BALLOU'S MAGAZINE FOR NOVEMBER.—We have received the November number of Ballou's Magazine, and have red it with interest, as we always do every month that Ballou is issued. It has the best variety of contents of any magazine in the country. Its romances are always well written, its sea stories such as only true-hearted sailors can write, and all the reading is original and of the best quality. There are 100 pages, 16 of them with illustrated subjects, and all for the small sum of 15 cents, or $1,50 per year. Great improvements are promised for the coming year. All periodical depots sell Ballou's. Thomes & Talbot, 63 Congress street, Boston, are the publishers.

A NEW, USEFUL AND VALUABLE INVENTION.—A metalic heal has been invented to be attached to the boot or shoe by means of screws. It is neatly made and is fast suceeding the ordinary heel as by its use much labor is saved. It being of metal, prevents the boot or shoe from running down at the side, and will not wear out. Those heels are cheaper than leather ones and save a large amount of work. They are only to be seen and they will commend themselves. The enterprising Boot and Shoe merchants, Messrs Graham & Son have them, and the right to use them in Centre county.

Shoe makers wishing shop rights should call on them immediately as they are in good demand.

WE are in receipt of several numbers of The State Journal, a new Republican daily recently issued at the State Capital by the Harrisburg Printing Association. It is a 28 column paper, neatly printed and edited with more than ordinary ability. If it perseveres in the energy it has so far displayed it will soon take its place as the foremost journal in the State. Persons wishing a live daily or weekly newspaper, replete with all the news of the day, systematically arranged should secure that paper. Prince of daily by mail $6,00 per annum; weekly $2,00 per annum. Persons in this place can get ir at John I. Rankin's Book Store, Bush House.

MEASURING MEN.—There is a growing tendency in the public mind to judge the character of the man by the coat he wears. This tendency is not only antirepublican but morally wrong and unjust. Under these circumstances a ragged coat on a mans back is most unfavorable for the wearer, yet, in many instances, that ragged coat covers more of real worth and moral excellency than does the best of broadcloth. The history of every rent and rag, if known, would prove an honor instead of a disgrace.—When will the public learn that.

"Worth makes the man, the want of it, the fellow;
The rest is all but leather, and prunello.

BOALSBURG ACADEMY.—The Academy at Boalsburg, which for the last four years has been under the charge of G. W. Leisher, the present Principal, we are glad to know is realizing all the benefits anticipated by its friends. The whole number of students in attendance during the year was sixty-nine. Persons wishing their children to possess themselves of a good classical education cannot do better than sending them to this school.

SAVE YOUR LEAVES.—Leaves make good bedding, though they are not remarkable absorbents. When turned to mould in the manure-heap they are invaluable for almost any growing crop. Instead therefore, of letting them be blown at the wind's will, as they fall from the trees on these autumn days, rake them together and deposit them in some convenient locality, in readiness for subsequent use, as we have suggested.

MILLINERY STORE.—Miss Mattie Boalich who resides at the toll gate, near Bellefonte, on the Bellefonte and Lewistown turnpike informs the public that she has received a new supply of new and fashionable millinery goods of the latest style, such as ladies and childrens hats and all articles usually kept in a first class milehary store.

GREAT BARGAINS.—By reference to the accompaning supplement it will be seen, that our enterprising friend and merchant Geo. D. Pifer is offering his entire stock of goods at cost. He holds out great inducements to purchasers. Give him a call.

CAST THEIR VOTES.—The colored citizens of this place, at the recent election cast their votes in a body for the Republican nominees. Hereafter it must be expected that their votes will be more divided between the two political parties.

THE STRAY LAW.—An exchange says, we are frequently interrogated in reference to the mode of treating stray horses, cattle, sheep, &c. The law on this subject is in substance this: Whenever a stray beast is found trespassing on the premises of any one it is the duty of the party to give notice to the owner thereof under the penalty of $6, if he can be found and within four days deliver to the Town Clerk a full description of the kind, marks, color or any other natural or artificial marks of such stray or strays, together with the fees which are for a horse 50 cents; cattle, 25 cents, and each sheep, 6 cents. If the owner does not appear within ten days after such stray shall be taken up, and settle all damages and costs, it shall be the duty of the party taking up the same to cause the said stray or strays to be advertised for three weeks in at least one newspaper, (which costs $1,50). And if the owner shall not have appeared within sixty days after such advertisement, and settle all reasonable costs and damages, the person taking up the said stray shall make application to a Justice of the Peace, in said township, who is required to issue his Warrant to the Constable, whose duty it shall be to sell the same at public sale, first giving ten days notice of such sale by at least three printed or written handbills. And after he shall have sold the same, he shall make return of the proceeds to the said Justice, who shall, after paying all reasonable damages and costs of keeping as aforesaid, pay over the surplus, if any there be, to the County Treasurer; but if the owner shall appear within one year after such sale, and prove his property to such stray the said Justice shall certify the same to the said Treasurer, who shall pay the owner the whole amount of such overplus, but if the owner shall not apply within the time aforesaid he shall thereafter be debarred from recovering, and the money aforesaid may be applied to county purposes.

BASE BALL.—For some time a rivalry has existed between the base ball clubs at Eagleville (Snow Flakes) and the club at Beech, (Fair Plays) several match games have been played between them with success sometimes on the one side and then on the other. It was finally agreed that the championship should be decided on the afternoon of the election day, on the ground of the "Fair Plays" at Beech Creek.

The day came and so did the boys, in high spirits each expecting to gain the victory. The contest commenced and so close was the game, that at the end of the ninth inning they were a tie at 34, it was then agreed to play the tenth inning to determine the contest, which resulted in a victory to the Fair Plays of Beech Breek. Below is the score.

WE find the following in the Petroleum Centre Cally Record of the 8th inst. This is the third well put down by Mr. Kepler, all producing large quantities of oil:

ANOTHER BIG WELL.—As we stated a day or two since, the gas explosion and fire at the Kepler & Watson well, McCray farm, delayed matters in tubing and testing the well until yesterday. Pumping began late yesterday afternoon with the best of results, as the well is now yielding over 200 barrels per day. The well is 817 feet deep, and had 45 feet of third sand-rock. It is owned by J. M. Kepler of Centre county, and Jonathan Watson of Titusville.

The well has been named after Gen. Jas. A. Beaver, of Centre county, a brave man, who lost a leg during the late war.

Mr. Kepler has been a hurd worker, and is deserving of the success he has met with.

WHEN AN OFFICER CAN MAKE AN ARREST.—At a recent court in Montgomery county it was decided that any officer, as well as any private citizen, has the right, and it is his duty, to prevent a crime with or without a warrant, and when he sees an act of crime committed he ought to make an arrest with or without a warrant, but the offender must be in view of the person making the arrest without a warrant, when committing the act, but when the officer acts on the information of others he must have a warrant before he can make the arrest.

SNAKE BITES.—The surest remedy, says an exchange, is to administer to a person bitten by a poisonous snake, as soon as possible, whiskey in large quantities, bathing the wound at the same time with a strong solution of alum. The victim, well protected with a woolen blanket, should take sufficient exercise to keep off stupor.

"DUTCH FLY NETS.—Persons wishing to purchase these kind of "Nets," should not fail to call on Phil D. Stover, the good looking editor of the dutch paper published at Milheim, who took the premium for that article at our County Fair.

PREMIUM.—Persons in need of ornamental or plain printing, done in a workmanlike manner, should not forget that the Bellefonte REPUBLICAN printing office took the first premium at our late County Fair for "best ornamental printing.

THURSDAY.

The morning was damp, dark and cloudy. Notwithstanding the unpropitious appearance of the heavens above and the earth beneath, at an early hour our streets were thronged with vehicles of all descriptions, loaded down with hearty, robust, honest farmers and their rosy checked blooming wives with their sons and daughters, wending their way to the fair grounds. For hours one continued stream of carriages and persons on foot poured through High street making a motly procession of over six miles in length. Your Reporter harnessed up his match team, which has never failed him, fell into line and helped swell the procession. Arriving at the gate, the officers were all smiles and our good looking friend Hamilton, was actualy shaking hands with his country cousins, and the gate keeper, our accommodating friend, for once, had his face wreathed in smiles and all of its former darkness had disappeared, and he was universally recognized by all as a white man.

At 11 o'clock a. m., the "Seller Zouaves" arrived from Patton township, under the command of our warrior looking friend, Capt. P. E. Sellers. They presented a good soldiery appearance and added greatly to the attractions of the day. By this time some seven thousand people were on the ground, all wearing gay and happy countenances. The different committees commenced their labors and the visitors their annual inspection.

At five minutes to 12 M., John H. Orvis, Esq., introduced to the vast multitude Hon. Thos. H. Barrows, President of the Agricultural College, who delivered the annual address, which was the best agricultural speech we ever listened to. We took his speech down as he delivered it, but reserve it for future publication.

On Friday morning there was a good many visitors on the ground but before night the stock and articles of exhibition had all been removed. If the managers of our county fair would make a freer use of printers ink they would find the receipts of the society increasing instead of decreasing.

STARTED UP.—Jacob V. Thomas & Co., have reensciated "our glass works," and are again manufacturing glass.

Farm and Household.

Wednesday Morning Oct. 19, 1870.

Modes of Fattening Hogs.

Not a few farmers feed corn in the ear, and some even raw potatoes, to their fattening swine. Onehalf would probably be an under estimate of the loss by this easiest but most slovenly and costly practice.

A large number mix dry meal with cold water or slops, and immediately feed it to their hogs. The loss in this case is not as much as in feeding the corn unground, but it cannot be less than from fifteen to twenty-five per cent.

Still others cook their meal with their potatoes, both thoroughly, completely mixing the one with the other, and then adding to the conglomerate water sufficient to make a thick mush, present it to the gratified and hearty eaters, thereby saving nearly all fat producing value contained in the grain and the potatoes.

For several years we have adopted this plan. Everything fed to our hogs while fattening, is cooked, but nothing is ground. To one bushel and half of potatoes (mashed) we add three pecks of dry corn in the kernel, and then with a liberal supply of water in a kettle almost steam-tight we cook for at least three hours. The kernels are then three or four times their original size and the potatoes are mush and when thoroughly mixed the dish is as acceptable as can be presented to a lot of fattening hogs. And as every particle of food is (or can be) reduced to a paste by the slightest mastification much more by the action of the stomach, there con be little if any loss.

The advantages are, that you save the time of taking your grain to the mill, the toll, and having your grain always at hand in a proper condition to use; there is a steadiness about the food that is one of the main elements of success in feeding fattening animals.

An addition of a few quarts of rye and an occasional peck of oats, making a little variety, is always a judicious plan; either of which are as easily cooked as heavier and lighter kernels of corn.

How to Carve.

Although it is a daily duty for many men and women to cut up meat for a family, there are multitudes who do it neither well nor wise. The following suggestions, from an agricultural paper on this point, may not be out of place, the more especially to young housekeepers:

To carve fowls, which should always be laid with the breast uppermost, place the fork in the breast, and take off the wings and legs, without turning the fowl; then cut out the merry thought; cut slices from the breast; cut out the collar bone; cut off the side pieces; and then cut the carcass in two. Divide the joints in the leg of a turkey.

In carving a sirloin, cut thin slices from the side next to you (it must be put on the dish the tenderloin underneath, that you carve it. Help the guests to both kinds.

In carving a leg of mutton or ham, begin by cutting across the middle to the bone.

Cut a tongue across and not lengthwise and help from the middle.

Carve a forequarter of lamb by separating the shoulder from the ribs, and then divide the ribs.

To carve a loin of veal, begin at the smaller end and separate the ribs.—Help each one to a piece of kidney and its fat. Carve pork and mutton in the same way.

In carving a pig it is customary to divide it and take off the head before it comes to the table, as to many persons the head is revolting. Cut off the limbs and divide the ribs.

GRAPES!—This dainty and delicious fruit is now in season, and remarkably fine, both in size and quality. One of the most scientific and popular cultivators, in answer to a question on the proper method of eating them, states that it would be well to observe the following rules, namely: When in health, to swallow only the pulp; when the bowels are costive, and you wish to relax them, swallow the seeds with the pulp, ejecting the skins. When you wish to check a too relaxed state of the bowels, swallow the pulp with the skin, ejecting the seeds. Thus may the grape be used as a medicine, while, at the same time, it serves as a luxury unsurpassed by any other cultivated fruit. A man or woman may eat from two to four pounds of ripe grapes per day with benefit. It is well to take them with, or immediately after your regular meals.

MAKE THE SOIL FERTILE.—The great principle of making the soil fertile, is to give back to it what we receive from it. This the Chinese do, and their soil continues of unsurpassed fertility. Saxony and Nassau, in Germany, have adopted the same practice, and the produce of their soil has doubled within the last fifteen years. We have soils that will yield good crops for a few years without manure, or clover or rotation of crops, but the end will be that it will not pay for cropping. A good farmer's farm should constantly be increasing in value and fertility, so that good crops, whether of grain, hay, potatoes, or other articles shall be a most reasonable certainty.

REMEDY FOR LICE IN POULTRY HOUSES—Mr. D. B. Buren says:

"I was troubled with hen lice very much, and listened to everybody's directions and tried everything. Still no relief came. My hen-house had a dry sand bottom. I mixed ashes with the sand; but no good. I put lime in the nest; but no good. At last, I thought of the virtues of brim stone. I turned the fowls out, and fumigated with charcoal and sulphur. I used four pounds, and it made a big smoke. The neighbors thought the building was on fire; but it wasn't. And the result was that the lice were all killed, and I have seen no more of them.

A correspondent of the Rural New Yorker says he can make fifty pounds more butter from a cow during the season, by churning the milk than by churning cream only.

COMPLETION OF THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

GREAT RUSH TO STERNBERGS.

Sung to the tune of Yankee Doodle.

The Great Pacific Railroad's laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And now complete connections made,
An enterprising notion.

The mighty work at last is done,
So speedy and brisk, oh!
And now in ten days we can run
From here to San Francisco.

No more we take the ancient route,
The stage, a horrid slow thing;
It banged the passengers about
And wore out all their clothing.

CHORUS, for the end of each verse:

The Great Pacific Railroad laid,
From ocean unto ocean,
And we buy clothes from A. STERNBERG,
A most delightful notion.

Through passengers by the Pacific Railroad will call at the store of A. Sternberg, before starting, and provide themselves with a complete outfit of Spring and Summer clothing, the very best assortment of which will always be found at A. Sternberg's Store.

People who travel by other routes, and also people who, instead of travelling by any route at all, prefer to stay at home, can find the most superior and seasonable garments, for every occasion, of every variety, and at the lowest price.

Do not fail to call and examine our stock before purchasing elsewhere; if you do not, we are sure you will be sorry that you did not. Our goods are put down to the lowest figure. We sell whole suits, according to quality.

Medical.

MANHOOD

In the Young and Rising Generation-

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lackjustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show its baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwards upon themselves.

If the patient be a female, the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety, as the first symptom in which Nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the check with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on; the energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so facinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S

EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from excesses or early indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision Langour, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for Fear of Themselves; no Repose of Manner, no Earnestness, no Speculation, but a hurried Transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this Medicine invariably removes—soon follow Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epileptic Fits, in one of which the patient may expire.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this sad result occurred to two patients; reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes, and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute—neither Mirth or Grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur, it is rarely articulate.

"With woeful measures wan Despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

Whilst we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

THE DIAMOND GLASSES,

MANUFACTURED BY

J. E. SPENCER & CO.,

N. Y., which are now offered to the public, are pronounced by all the celebrated Opticians of the World to be the

MOST PERFECT

Natural, Artificial help to the human eye ever known,

They are ground under their own supervision, from minute Crystal Pebbles, melted together, and derive their name "Diamond," on account of their hardness and brilliancy. THE SCIENTIFIC PRINCIPLE on which they are constructed brings the core or centre of the lens directly in front of the eye, producing a clear and distinct vision, as in the natural, healthy sight, and preventing all unpleasant sensations, such as glimmering and wavering of sight, dizziness, &c., peculiar to all others in use. They are Mounted in the Finest Manner. In frames of the best quality, of all materials used for that purpose. THEIR FINISH AND DURABILITY cannot be surpassed.

CAUTION.—None genuine unless bearing their trade mark stamped on every frame.
